Its Enforcement.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 1.—Attorneys for the principal brewing interests in Iowa will, it was announced today, soon work out a line of action to safeguard their business, which has been curtailed by the recently enacted law.

These laws not only place restrictions upon saloons but reduce the number of such places. Recently, Attorney General Myers held the "Moon" law became effective on the date of passage, instead of July 4th next, and yesterday the brewers from Dubuque, Sioux City, Davenport, Council Bluffs, and Waverly held secret meetings here and discussed the situation. The line on which the brewers will make their fight has not yet been made public. In the meantime they urge every saloonman in the state to comply strictly with the statutes.

Hard For Game With Deloit Highs Tomorrow.

Next Saturday the Deloit high school football team will engage in a contest with the Janesville high school team on Kepp Field, the college athletic grounds, at Deloit. The game promises to be a hot one, as both teams are about evenly matched for size and weight. It will mean a hard fought battle for the honors, for the side which wins. The Janesville team were defeated last Saturday, but the men against whom they were pitted were twenty-five pounds heavier and the showing by the local team in holding them down to an 11-0 score has encouraged both the players and their friends. There have been practicing continually and have been in training in order to be in condition for the battle. The team which will line up against the Deloit aggregation will be practically the same as last Saturday against Whitewater. Stuart Williams, son of Rev. T. D. Williams, the minister of the Methodist church, has joined the squad and he will no doubt play tomorrow in place of Reno Koch at right end. Emmett Murphy will take Bunk's place as left end and a substitute center will be found for Raymond Fulton as center. ## TWO OF ORIGINAL FORCE NOW WORKING

M. MacDonald And C. Capelle Have Carried Mail Since First City Delivery, 22 Years Ago.

October 1, 1887 free mail delivery to all parts of the city was instituted with four men employed as mail carriers at that time. The four who then held the positions were Marion MacDonald, C. Capelle, E. V. Whiton, and John O'Grady. The first two named are still delivering mail, but of the last two, Mr. Whiton has left the service and Mr. O'Grady is dead. Besides these four there were undoubtedly substitute carriers but the records do not show just who they were. At that time there were but four wards in the city, and to each ward was assigned the charge of a ward. Since that time the number of wards has grown to five and the number of carriers has also been increased until there are now nine, with a possibility of securing two more if the postoffice department heeds the request of the local office.

FLEET SAILED UP THE HUDSON TODAY

Two Fleets of Small Craft at Hudson-Fulton Celebration Met At Newburgh.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Oct. 1.—Cities and towns on the upper Hudson shared in the Hudson-Fulton festivities today. Two fleets of torpedo boats and other small naval craft, one of which started from this city and the other from Albany, traversed the entire length of the historic waterway and met at Newburgh, where they were joined by the replicas of the Half Moon and the Clermont. A parade of yachts and marines was held in Newburgh, which was elaborately decorated for the occasion and filled with visitors. Celebrations were held also at Cornwall, Peekskill and other points along the river.

Thousands of New Yorkers turned out this morning to see the departure of the fleet up the river. Long before the sun had cleared the eastern horizon a rim, all was life and bustle abroad the torpedo boats, the destroyers, submarines, revenue cutters and other craft that were to take part in the parade. At six o'clock orders flashed from the flagship for the fleet to dress for the day's festivities. A few moments later a rainbow of mighty colors was reflected in the blue waters of the Hudson. As they started on the river amid a deafening salute from the American and foreign battleships and cruisers the trim little warships made a magnificent showing in their gala attire, with rainbows of hunting from bow to stern.

In the metropolitan district the scene of today's celebration was shifted across the East River to Brooklyn. In that borough there was a repetition of the gorgeous historical parade given in Manhattan last Tuesday. As on the previous occasion the parade was made up of over fifty magnificent floats representing the various periods in the history of New York. The procession was witnessed by enormous crowds. The route was from the Memorial Arch at the entrance to Prospect Park, along the Eastern Parkway to Buffalo Avenue. Three enormous grandstands, each capable of seating over 3,000 persons, were used for the accommodation of invited guests.

VAN HISE TALKS TO THE STUDENTS

EXPLAINS SYSTEM BY WHICH OLDER STUDENTS WILL ACT AS COUNSELLORS FOR NEWCOMERS.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 1.—The new plan of having the upper classmen at the University of Wisconsin call upon the new students and assist them in every way possible to get a good start in their studies as well as in student activities for which they are best adapted, was explained by President Charles R. Van Hise at the first convocation of the year held in Assembly hall this noon.

GIVES PLAN IN DETAIL

First Convocation of the Year at State University Largely Attended—
Over 1,000 Freshmen Enrolled.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 1.—The new plan of having the upper classmen at the University of Wisconsin call upon the new students and assist them in every way possible to get a good start in their studies as well as in student activities for which they are best adapted, was explained by President Charles R. Van Hise at the first convocation of the year held in Assembly hall this noon.

STANDS FOR DEMOCRACY

Dr. Van Hise emphasized the importance of maintaining a democratic spirit in the university in order that each student should have full opportunity to take advantage of all the facilities of the university, including both those furnished by the state and those maintained by the students. All students, old and new, he said, should lend a hand to one another in attaining this ideal.

UNDERSTANDING TO CALL ON FRESHMEN

The system at the English universities, where there are halls of residence in which every new student gains the advice and assistance of a number of older men, the speaker said, is one that he hopes in the near future can be carried out at Wisconsin when dormitories are provided. Until halls of residence are built here, he urged that the plan recommended by the student conference of having the upperclassmen call on the freshmen and act as their counselors and advisers, be carried out at once. In order to assist in bringing about this closer personal relation between the old students and the new, President Van Hise explained that the regents had provided a member of the faculty, Prof. Frederick W. Roe of the English department, to be special freshman adviser.

URGES WIDE ACQUAINTANCE

The classroom, laboratory, and lecture room work, President Van Hise pointed out, is only one part of student life. Another important part of education is gained by the association of students with each other. In order to get the most out of their education, the speaker urged the new students to gain as wide a circle of acquaintance as possible.

SHOULD TAKE PART IN OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES

The literary societies, dramatic organizations, musical clubs, athletics and various societies, the speaker pointed out, had advantages for those who participated in their activities. Upperclassmen, he said, should find out which of these student activities each new student was best adapted to, and should then assist him in gaining entrance to those activities. While doing regular university work, each student should also enter into the wholesome enjoyment of student life, and gain all that is to be obtained from these student activities.

The man who would succeed in life, President Van Hise said, must not only know his subject, but must be able to get along with his fellows, become popular, and win confidence and respect. Preparation for this success in life can best be gained by participation in student affairs. Leadership in student affairs along the best lines, the speaker said, was the best way to advance the university, their alma mater, who, at the expense of the state, is giving to all such inestimable advantages.

DEPLORES STUDENT POSE

The speaker deplored the fashion among some college students to speak in a derogatory way of studies, and to characterize the man who did his work carefully and well as a "grind."

This pose, on the part of some who themselves are good students, he showed, often is mistaken by new students for the real attitude of the prominent college student toward his work. Too often, he said, the freshman did not discover the real situation and the necessity of earnest, conscientious work in college until it was too late.

NEW INTERURBAN PLAN IN DETAIL

PROJECTED ROAD TO CONNECT MERRILL AND JANESVILLE.

WILL BE 180 MILES LONG

And Will Pass Through Eight of the Richest Counties of the State—Identity of the Promoters.

The Portage Democrat, in a recent issue, devoted seven columns to the unfolding of a project for 180-mile electric freight and passenger railroad, traversing the rich counties of Lincoln, Marathon, Portage, Wood, Adams, Columbia, Dane, and Rock, and binding together in a big commercial system such cities as Merrill, Wausau, Stevens Point, Grand Rapids, Friendship, Portage, Madison, Stouten, Elberton, and Janesville, with an outlet via Rockford, Bellevue, Elgin, and Aurora, in Chicago. It is the same plan discussed, with considerable reluctance, by C. F. Knowlton of Janesville, Ohio, and Allen P. Russell of Baltimore, on the occasion of their visit to this city, Tuesday, Sept. 7, and set forth on these pages at the time.

With minute care, the Democrat sets forth the resources of the country through which such a road would pass, showing an estimated aggregate population of 355,866 to draw from a total property valuation of $325,751,455; and bank deposits amounting to $20,613,000. In proportion to the population, it avers, the bank deposits are larger than in any other section of the United States. "And that speaks well of the prosperous condition of this country through which it is proposed to build the Chicago & Wisconsin Valley Interurban railroad." The wood pulp, factory, tobacco, dairy, and general agricultural interests are discussed, likewise the beautiful scenery of the Wisconsin river at Portage; the trout streams of Adams county; and an eight-mile stub to connect with Milwaukee and the Delta; and the two beautiful lakes between Madison and Stouten which will be on the right-of-way. Likewise the C. & N. W. C. M. & St. P., Wisconsin Central, and Green Bay & Western and Illinois Central railroad connections. Likewise the availability of cheap power at the Kibbourn dam and the surplusage of physical obstacles in building such a road, the country being practically level and making possible a maximum grade of one per cent.

Janesville is listed as "a wide awake up-to-date town—one of the best in the state"—with factories employing 1,200 men, a population of 15,000, and available railroad connections. "The portion of the line from Janesville to Madison would be a veritable gold mine," says the prospectus. "Thousands of people would use it in going to and from the lakes and to Madison and Janesville."

And further on: "It is safe to compute a revenue of $1 per capita per year for the population now in eight counties through which the proposed road would pass. There is no doubt but that this would hold good because of the large commercial travel, the lake resorts, and the many factories whose employees would be constantly using this line; as well as the colleges and universities along the route. This would make a revenue from passenger traffic alone of about $1,300,000 a year. The mail, express, and freight business would be large and with the use of electricity, thus cutting down the operating expenses, the road could not be otherwise than a profitable investment. If everyone will boost, take some of the stock, and make it easy for the company to acquire its rights-of-way, the money market is in shape to take the bonds of an enterprise like this. Because the expert report shows it to be a better electric railway proposition than similar lines already built and in operation, that are paying handsome dividends to their stockholders."

"The proposition is to build a standard gauge, first class railway, to be operated with electricity, to convey passengers, mail, express, and freight in car lots or less, and to do a general railway business. The contract to build and equip the road can be let to the Western Indiana Construction Co., which will at once upon an office either at Madison or Portage and put engineers in the territory to make a location of the line at a very early date."

Articles of organization were filed with the secretary of state last Thursday with preliminary capital stock of $10,000. On the location of the line by engineers, the stock will be increased to an amount sufficient to build and equip the road.

The incorporators are: Thomas W. Watts of Chicago, Frank M. Zimmerman of Aurora, Ill., A. J. Behymer of Indianapolis, J. W. Purvis of Friendship, J. E. Jones of Portage, A. D. Barnes of Wausau, P. J. Kimball of Bellevue, R. H. Williams of Springfield, Ill., D. E. Frost of Stevens Point, E. J. Baskerville of Madison, and James R. MacMillan of La Crosse. At Portage last Monday the incorporators met and elected the following officers: President, D. E. Frost of Stevens Point; First Vice Pres., J. W. Purvis; Secretary, A. J. Behymer; Treasurer, J. E. Jones; Assistant Treasurer, P. J. Kimball; General Manager and Chief Engineer, Allen T. Russell of Baltimore; Executive Committee, C. F. Knowlton of Chicago, J. E. Jones of Portage, and A. T. Russell; Directors—H. H. Williams of Springfield, J. E. Jones, D. E. Frost, P. J. Zimmerman, P. J. Kimball, Thos. W. Watts, J. W. Purvis, A. J. Behymer, E. J. Baskerville, A. D. Barnes, and James R. MacMillan. Engineer Joseph Ellis of the Cincinnati Construction Co., who made an inspection of the articles of organization at Madison yesterday, is unwilling to talk for publication. The latter concern's franchise was granted last March and will be forfeited next summer if the actual construction of the road has not been commenced by that time. The Messrs. Knowlton and Russell, upon the occasion of their visit here early in September, declared that it would be the policy of their company to work in harmony with lines already existing or projected along their route. At the same time, they made a very careful examination of the Cincinnati Construction Co. grant.

LAWYERS ARE TO RE-ADJUST FEES

At Bar Association Meeting This Evening—Revision Downward Is Hardly to Be Expected.

At the meeting of the Rock, Green, and Jefferson county lawyers which will be held at the office of Jeffries, Mount, Smith & Avery this evening it is expected that a readjustment will be made in the fee schedule. The public would be delighted to hear of a revision downward but it is a foreboding hope.

VETERAN ENGINEER GIVES UP HIS RUN

J. M. Smith, One of the Oldest Active Engineers on the Road, Gives Up Way Freight.

Thirty-six years of active service on the North-Western road, fourteen years of which were spent on one run, is the record of Engineer J. M. Smith, who gave up his position on the south end way freight this morning to act as dispatcher at the new yards. During his career as fireman and engineer on the North-Western, Mr. Smith has seen the system develop from a crude beginning to what is now one of the greatest systems in the country; and has piloted all styles of engines from the old wood burner to the modern flyer.

Since he made his first trip out of Janesville as fireman in March, 1873, Mr. Smith has worked almost continuously out of this city. For five years, however, he worked on a passenger run on the Milwaukee division and was during this time, in 1892, that he was severely injured in what he states to have been an accident. A misplaced switch at Vanaton wrecked his train and although none of the passengers were killed, Mr. Smith was in the hospital for forty-five days while his fireman spent eight months in the same place.

Since 1894 he has piloted trains out of Janesville, and for the past fourteen years has held runs 588 and 595 continuously. Although he will be sixty-four years old on November 28, and is one of the oldest engineers in active service on the road, Mr. Smith entertains no thought of retiring and does not expect to apply for the pension to which he will be entitled after working one more year.

THREE MEN ON SWITCH ENGINE DURING RUSH

Last night, on account of the greatly increased traffic to be handled, three switchmen were placed on each switch-engine at the new yards. Although the matter has been agitated for some time, the increase in the number of men was not made until last night and then only because it was almost impossible to do the work with facility without the extra man.

Engineer Cole and Fireman Hucksaw are relieving Engineer Lewis and Fireman Kauffman on 534 and 541 today.

Engineer J. M. Smith has displaced Engineer "Jack" Lee as chief switchman. The latter has knocked out Walter Wilke, who is laying off at present to prepare for examination.

Engineer Starritt and Fireman Coon are holding the places on 535 and 596 left vacant by Engineers Smith and Kauffman while the positions are being filled.

Fireman Dornicks was sent down by the "wood choppers" to hold Fireman Storm's place on the Watertown run with Engineer Crowley, so that the lumbermen would not miss anything that was coming to them. The shock almost proved fatal when Engineer Dudley caught the Jefferson special, Wednesday.

Engineer Derber and Fireman Krueger are on the gravel train day after taking the Jefferson special yesterday. Engineer Keenan and Fireman Bucher, who worked out of the pit yesterday, went north on an extra to Fond du Lac this morning.

Machinist L. L. Hoffman of Fond du Lac will be added to the round house force tomorrow.

Engineer Dudley and Fireman Dalton caught the third switch-engine this morning.

Switchman Neal Cronin was taken sick this morning and forced to quit work.

John Barry, who has had charge of the switches at the Five Points for some time, expects to give up his position tomorrow night to go bridging.

Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. Fireman Harry Walton of the Prairie division has been held over for a couple of days and is firing on the switch-engine with Engineer Callahan.

Engineer Cornelius lost out on the "goat" this morning at Beloit but went out on an extra west at 11:30 with Fireman Barker.

Fireman Duxstad is on the switch-engine today with Engineer James in place of Fireman Hillemeier who went out on 165 last night with Engineer Meyer.

Engineer Higgins has charge of a work train on the Plattville branch.

Switchman Albert Hunter is working days in place of McCarthy, who has taken a night job.

Tom Nolan, formerly car repairer on the N. W., went to work for Foreman Wilcox this morning.

FUTURE EVENTS TO BE HELD AT Y. M. C. A.

Gymnasium Classes Begin Next Monday Evening—Commercial League Banquet Oct. 12.

Next Monday evening the indoor work of the Y. M. C. A. will be commenced when the Session meet to organize into classes. The indications are that the number this year will be much larger than last. Already considerable interest has been manifested in regard to this year's basketball games and a number of the captains have been endeavoring to secure new recruits for their respective teams. The Juniors and the Intermediates will start on Tuesday.

League Banquet

Officers are progressing toward the completion of the arrangements for the Commercial league banquet which will be held at the association building Tuesday October 12. There will not only be a grand feast, but following it an excellent program of toasts by the managers of the various teams will be given. The program planned for that occasion is as follows:

To The Banquet—A. J. Harwood, Lewis Knitting Co.

Basenall—W. R. Kohler, Wisconsin Carriage Co.

To The Ladies—George Drummond, Janesville Machine Co.

To The Teachers—Roy Palmer, representing the Y. M. C. A.

To The Winners—David Atwood, Gazette Printing Co.

The Commercial League—Fred Palmer, Parker Pen Co.

The proposition of a commercial basketball league is being worked up and it is quite likely that it will become a certain thing. A good share of the factories represented in the basketball league would probably have teams and others not playing basketball have asked for admission into the basketball league.

TWO INJURED IN A RUNAWAY IN BELOIT

Horse Attached to Junk-Dealer's Wagon Ran Away, Doing Much Damage to Those in His Way.

(Special to the Gazette.)

Beloit, Oct. 1.—Two men were seriously injured in a runaway which occurred last evening in Beloit. A horse was thrown from his wagon and ran over and injured a man and a woman. A horse driven by an Italian junk-dealer was running on State street at five o'clock. At the corner of State street and First grand avenue the runaway horse collided with the wagon of Daniel Paster, a dealer. The wagon was crushed and Mr. Paster thrown to the pavement. He was taken to a hospital and later to his home. His only injuries were scratches and bruises. The runaway horse then ran on North State street and into the Strong livery barn. Harry Tanguis was standing in the barn and was knocked down and trampled upon. Both men are doing well today. The owner and driver of the runaway horse was arrested and means will be taken to make him stand the expenses of the accident.

The Baptist church last night had their annual meeting and parish supper. The reports show the church alive in all its branches.

The Swedish Lutheran Synod meeting closed last night with a banquet for the visiting delegates.

Cambridge, Mass.—Upon Percy Houghton and Hamilton Fish, coach and captain, respectively, of the Harvard eleven for the coming season, falls the task of holding Harvard to the standard set last season, when Yale was beaten and the Crimson credited with having about the swiftest team of the season with the possible exception of Pennsylvania.

To Houghton goes much of the credit for Harvard's great come-back in football. For years the critics have seen the Crimson go down before Yale and taken it as a matter of course. That was before Houghton appeared. Then there was a change; Harvard began to win. Somewhere Houghton had learned that a flow could be a great football player, even if his father wasn't a multimillionaire and he didn't belong to the swiftest set in Harvard. A new democratic spirit appeared and Harvard tennis won. Chances are bet for a repetition this year.

The Harvard guard or at least a goodly portion, ported last Monday. The only serious player is Captain Burr. He was great there, but the Crimson can win without him, as has been proved by the fact that he was not in the game against Yale last year.

Cold Weather Signs.

Of course, you noticed as the summer days glided along that the summer was an unusual one, and you are quite ready to believe that the coming winter will be the worst ever. Well, may you believe it, and if you will lay out a cool yard with the least possible delay. Farmer Brown, who has lived in winter and never made a mistake on the weather, says that:

All the maple trees are leaning to the west.

All the current bushes are already preparing to go into their holes.

The fur on coons, foxes and skunks is three feet thick and still growing.

Barrels of soft soap in farmers' wood-sheds are emitting sighs and moans and once in a while tipping to the south.

Horses are shivering in their blankets in order to line their bodies with wool.

Every grasshopper in the country has been digging a den for himself the last of September, and some of them have already buried into hillside a distance of six feet and hid their nests with cotton batting.

Just fences that stood up like mountains in August now wobbling in the knees and all horquads have lost the Lake Comus bluejays' waters.

Geese, hens and ducks are standing around on one hand getting as near the kitchen stove as they can.

The pumpkin pie jumped up in the middle and is sitting fastidiously, while cows are lying and in a bewildered way and owls are hooting at midnight.

Get ready for it! It will be awful when it comes. JOE KELLER.

INDIAN FORD DAM IS BOUGHT BY THE ELECTRIC COMPANY

Janesville Electric Company Purchases the Power Plant From Captain Pliny Norcross.

It was announced today that the Janesville Electric company has purchased the Indian Ford dam and power plant located at Indian Ford, of its former owner, Captain Pliny Norcross. This gives the local company two power plants besides the one located in this city—one at Fulton, and the newly acquired one at Indian Ford, making a total horse power of two thousand and over. It is understood that the plant at Indian Ford will be remodeled and improved, a number of large transformers and an up to date switchboard being among the improvements planned for. At present it furnishes the light and power for the city of Edgerton, but it is understood it will be connected with the other power plants of the company and thus the current will be brought to Janesville. The Indian Ford dam is one of the oldest in the state, having been built in the forties originally to run a lumber or bark mill, later a feed mill, and some seven or eight years ago was transformed into an electric plant. It will be remembered that this dam was the dam that unknown parties tried to blow up three years ago and at the present time there is an action pending in the courts relative to its franchise. The dam is located at the entrance of the river in Lake Koshkonong and is circumnavigated for launches by the shortest railway line in the world, the Indian Ford Transportation company. The local company will not alter the dam and the changes contemplated will be merely in the machinery.

OCTOBER 15TH IS DATE SET FOR THE HEARING OF CASE

City of Janesville vs. Janesville Street Railway Co. Comes Before Rail-Way Commission on This Date.

On October 15th the case of the city of Janesville against the Janesville Street Railway company will be heard before the state railway commission. City Attorney Maxfield received word this morning that the case will be the first stop in the actions which have been brought, under orders of the common council, to compel the local railway company to either improve their service and live up to the requirements of franchise or have it taken away.

The complaint upon which the state railway commission will pass is upon the condition of the tracks, cars and general service of the system. It was filed by the city attorney and answered by the attorneys for the railway company who denied every charge made except the fact that they were a corporation doing business under a franchise granted by the city, and that Mr. Maxfield was city attorney. They also denied the jurisdiction of the railway commission to pass upon the merits of the case.

Since this action was begun there has also been an order passed by the council ordering the company to make repairs and otherwise improve its service within a specified time, and this case will probably be brought into the circuit court, coming up in the February term. The road is owned by the Blanton estate of Philadelphia.

Too Pleasant to Be Proper.

Reading in bed has long been condemned as a harmful indulgence. Now comes the London Lancet and says that it is no more harmful to read in bed than anywhere else if you have the light placed right and do not hold the book too close to your eyes. But reading in bed is such a pleasant thing that it really does not seem as if it could be right.

You can make the useless fireplace in your home a source of comfort and delight by simply installing a new gas grate.

Any minute of the day or night, just a touch of a match and a turn of the wrist and you have a cheery blaze that will warm the room in a moment and make it luxuriously cozy, besides being an ever-ready convenience. Such a grate fire is free from the dirt and trouble that accompanies the old-fashioned open fireplace.

Your empty fireplace should contain a gas grate.

NEW TARIFF BOARD.
Left to right, James D. Reynolds, Prof. Henry C. Emery of Yale, chairman of commission; below, Alvin H. Sanders of Chicago, editor and publisher of Breeders' Gazette.

New York.—One of the last official acts of the president before he left Beverly was to appoint the new tariff commission. The work of this commission will be purely advisory and its power is at present limited to assisting the administration of maximum rates.

The commission is composed of three well-known tariff experts. Prof. Henry C. Emery of Yale university was chosen chairman. James D. Reynolds of Boston and Alvin H. Sanders of Chicago complete the commission.

Mr. Sanders is a native of Iowa. He was born in Talleysburg, Iowa, in 1861. His father is said to have founded the first live stock paper published in the United States, called the Western Stock Journal, in 1869. In 1873 the elder Sanders came to Chicago and founded the first weekly live stock journal in that country, known as the Breeders' Gazette.

The son attended the Chicago High school, took his advance work at Cornell university and in 1881 entered the Chicago College of Law. He graduated from that institution, but he did not go into the practice of law. Instead he went into business with his father in the conduct of the Breeders' Gazette.

Secretary Reynolds is an expert on tariff questions. His reports on the progress of the Wilson-Gorman bill, when he was a newspaper correspondent in Washington a number of years ago, brought him to the attention of President Roosevelt. Since his appointment to the treasury department he has been especially active in the investigation of tariffs, both foreign and domestic, and he recently made an extensive tour of Europe in the interests of the inquiry.

Mr. Reynolds is one of the "young men" of the capital, being under 40 years of age. He was born in Saratoga, N. Y., and after graduation from Dartmouth, worked as a reporter on the Boston Advertiser. After a brief period in Boston he was sent to Washington for his paper. He was a friend of Senator Lodge, and it was upon the latter's recommendation that he was appointed by President Roosevelt to the treasury department. Mr. Reynolds is a personal friend of President Taft.

Henry Crosby Emery is professor of political economy at Yale college. He has occupied this chair since August, 1906. Most of his life since graduation from Bowdoin college in 1882 has been given to the study of economics with specialization along political lines, and he is believed to be particularly well equipped to head the board.

Illuminating Shells.

Experiments have recently been made at Toulon with shells intended to illuminate the sea at a distance from the land, thus disclosing the presence and movements of an enemy at night. The shells are made to explode at a great height, and to give light for a sufficient time to permit an examination of the surface of the sea for several miles from the shore, says Youth's Companion. The officers in charge of the experiment regard the illuminating shells as more effective than searchlights in disclosing the position of hostile ships. Another form of shell has been proposed, which shall, in bursting over the sea, spread a cloud of thick smoke about the batteries on shore, thus preventing them from seeing the approaching ships, and rendering the illuminating shells useless.

Typhoid Fever Antidote.

A French chemist has recently proclaimed that cider is an antidote for typhoid fever. The acid in it is the agent, as it destroys the germs. Cider in Europe is more generally used as a beverage than in this country. Germans appear to prefer cider after it becomes sour, but Americans usually prefer it while it is sweet.

LATEST PICTURE OF THE MAN WHO MAY SUCCEED C. H. HARRISMAN.
JUDGE ROBERT LOVETT AND HIS WIFE AS THEY WERE LEAVING THE MAJESTIC HOTEL, THEIR NEW YORK HOME.

New York.—A Texas product of whom the United States will hear more in the future is Judge Robert Scott Lovett. Judge Lovett is a self-made man and self-educated, to a large extent. He is nearing the half century mark in life and his career from the public schools of Houston, Texas, to the local head of the Harriman system has been one of activity and continual advancement.

Twenty years ago Mr. Lovett married Miss Lavina Abernethy of Huntsvillo, Texas. This was after he had gained considerable prominence as a railroad lawyer in the state of Texas. Since E. H. Harriman's death, it is broadly rumored that Judge Lovett may succeed to the head of the Harriman system. He holds the entire confidence of the railroad colossal and is one of Mr. Harriman's main supporters in directing the thousands of miles of railroad under his control.

CANCER MOSTLY IN EUROPE

United States and Canada Also Afflicted With Plague—Greatest Mortality in London.

Spread out a map of the world and mark the countries that have progressed furthest in material well-being, in education, government, sanitation and other essentials of modern civilization; those are the countries that suffer most from the cancer plague. In the eastern world, not Asia or Africa, but enlightened Europe; in the western, not Mexico, Honduras or Panama, but the United States and Canada—these are the countries most grievously afflicted, writes Burton J. Kendrick in McClure's Magazine. No savage tribe is absolutely immune, but cancer is less violent in those peoples that have reached the highest points in civilization. And not only this, but it apparently bears heaviest upon the most sanitary and enlightened parts of these countries. In Europe the nations that suffer most are not Russia or Hungary or Italy or Spain, but Germany, France, Sweden, Norway and, above all, England. In London the greatest mortality is found, not in the East end, but in Hampstead, Marylebone and Chelsea, which include the city's wealthiest parts. Similarly in New York, the Russian Jews and Italians who so largely populate the crowded tenement sections, are comparatively immune, whereas the more sanitary parts of the town are favorite breeding places. Where diseases of known contagiousness, like tuberculosis, typhoid fever, diphtheria and pneumonia, most abound, cancer seems to find a less strong foothold than in other more salubrious sections; as by some mysterious and inexorable law of compensation it finds its way mainly into the homes of the prosperous and enlightened.

Carnegie Cactus.

The big cactus of Arizona, which attains a height of 50 to 60 feet, and which has heretofore been known as Cereus giganteus, has been found by Drs. Britton and Rose to be the type of a new and hitherto undescribed genus. It is not a Cereus at all, they say, and they propose to call it the Carnegiea gigantea.

Electropodes Do Wonders For Stomach

Remarkable Electric Device To Produce Wireless Current That Quickly Restores Diseased Stomach and Other Organs.

A Real Treatment for Rheumatism.

We want to call the attention of our readers to a remarkable electric device which seems already to have exploded many pet theories of physicians and scientists, and to have produced positive wonder in those who have used it. This new invention is called Electropodes, which comes in pairs—both producing and receiving an electric current, and permeating the vital organs, purifying and correcting diseased conditions, regulating vital functions, and strengthening the nerves almost beyond description. It is not only life but health, and vigor unobtainable by any other means. It has already produced astonishing results in Stomach and Liver Troubles, Kidney Complaints, Back Pains, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Weak Heart, Rheumatism, Nervous Prostration, Neuritis and Weak Nerves.

These results are not fanciful, but already proven. For those who have failed in medicine for curing the above diseases, these Electropodes come as a distinct revelation.

Those who wear them report an instantaneous new feeling of glow and health to every organ, the nerves and entire body. Nothing like it has ever been found. Electropodes are produced in pairs, one to be worn on the right side of the body, the other on the left. They are never used together, but one at a time, for the slow building up of energy and health you would never know any other electric device in that they produce a current only when in actual use.

Electropodes have already been distributed so that you can now get them at any drug store for $1.00 a pair. To prove to you that they do the wonderful things claimed for them, the druggist signs a legal binding contract that if you are not perfectly satisfied with the Electropodes at the end of 30 days, your money will be refunded. If your druggist should not have Electropodes on hand, send $1.00 for a pair to The Electropode Company, Suite 14, 1101 Third Avenue, New York, and they will be sent to you in the same 30 days. With our contract signed by the manufacturer, your contract is completely satisfied. You are positively refunding your money, and the interesting story of how Electropodes heal, no matter where the trouble is located. Say whether for lady or gentleman.

PEARY'S CREW REMAIN SILENT

OBEDIENT OF COMMANDER
NOT TO DISCUSS COOK CON-TROVERSY.

ROOSEVELT AT NEW YORK

Steamer Arrives in Time to Participate in Hudson-Fulton Celebration.
—Capt. Bartlett Says Cook Was Not Taken Seriously.

New York, Oct. 1.—It was just daylight when the lookout at Sandy Hook discovered a vessel slowly making its way up the bay, and not until she had rounded the Hook was it known that the stranger was the little steamer Roosevelt, which bore Commander J. E. Peary on his trip to the north pole, that had entered New York harbor. At her masthead floated the flag of the Peary Arctic club.

Off the point of the Hook the Roosevelt gave three triumphant screams of her siren and ran up the Peary Arctic club flag at her masthead, then the flag of the New York Yacht club at her fore, and the American ensign at her mizzen. Turning that point of the Hook the Roosevelt headed into the harbor and anchored there within half a mile of the government dock.

Commander Peary's ship arrives in the nick of time to participate in the closing ceremonies of the Hudson-Fulton celebration. She will take part in the naval parade which will go up the Hudson as far as Newburgh.

No Doubt About Peary.

Still clad in the rough clothes worn on the Arctic trip, although his fur had been laid aside, Capt. Bartlett stood on his quarter deck and acted as spokesman for the party. Acting under instructions from Commander Peary, the crew and the scientists and others on board will remain on the Roosevelt and not enjoy life ashore here until they are released by the chief of the expedition. Capt. Bartlett said that the Roosevelt will accompany the naval procession as far as Newburgh. All those now aboard will be there during the parade.

"There is no doubt," said Capt.
Bartlett, "that the stars and stripes have been 'nailed to the north pole,' and no doubt that Mr. Peary was there. Peary got there because he was the only man that the Eskimos will follow out of sight of land. They say he is 'Peuk,' meaning 'next to God.'"

than a medicine," said a well-known gen-

that had taken place in his condition.

about the remarkable new discovery myself in the mirror now, I think it is somewhat like a miracle. I have put on just 30 pounds during the last month and never felt stronger or more 'energetic' in my life.

Protone is a powerful inducer of nutriresult builds up muscles and solid, healthy flesh, and builds out the figure.

Dr. Cook to send an expedition to recover his records left at Etah. Peary's captain declared that it would have to be a very "smart trip" to get there this year. "Only to rescue starving men would I attempt such a trip," said he. "Did you hear that Dr. Cook had discovered the pole when you were in Etah?" he was asked.
"Yes; but nobody took the news seriously."

"Had it occurred to you that Cook might be in danger?"
"We considered Cook a man of too much experience in Arctic travel," was the reply, "to get himself into trouble."

All Kept Silent.

The other members of the party showed a determination to regard Commander Peary's wishes about discussing the Cook controversy. When Pritchard, the cabin boy, was asked if he had heard Dr. Cook tell Harry Whitney at Etah that he had been to the pole, he replied:
"Yes, I heard him say that."
Questioned further, he said:
"I can't answer you. I don't want to be drawn into this."

POWER OF A BIG NAVAL GUN

Progress in Ordnance Illustrated by Comparison of Ancient and Modern Arms of Warfare.

Lieut. A. Trevor Dawson, R. N., M. Inst. C. E., of Messrs. Vickers, Sons and Maxims, in a recent lecture to the Junior Institution of Engineers in London, illustrated the progress in ordnance by a comparison of a 12-inch muzzle loading gun of about 1864
and one of the latest breech loaders.
The 1864 gun deflected plates of 16-inch thickness, while 52-inch wrought iron plates would be required to resist the projectile of the 1909 gun, and these would be altogether useless.

They were about two miles out in the lake when the engine broke and water poured into the rolling boat.
Young Rohrlok used a pall to bail out the craft. In trying to throw it to Macey the vessel was lost in the lake.
All then used their hats as dippers to rid the launch of water. They sought to attract the attention of rescuers by pouring gasoline on garments and burning them, but their matches were blown out by the wind.

All night they fought the waves and young Rohrlok fell to the bottom of the boat exhausted.

As a last resort the men tied a shirt to an oar carried for emergency and this signal was seen by a man of Capt. Carlin's crew in a watch tower.
The lifeboats launched a boat and hurried to the rescue.

They were taken out about two miles off shore. They refused to return to Saugatuck by boat, one declaring: "I have enough of the water to do me for the rest of my life."

PUBLIC TO GET JUSTICE.

Weight of Food or Drug Packages Must Meet Claims of Labels.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Every precaution will be taken by the federal government, through the board of food and drug inspection of the department of agriculture, to see that exact justice is given to the public regarding the weight or volume of foods or drugs purchased.

This intention was clearly indicated by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chairman of the board of food and drug inspection, in addressing manufacturers and jobbers of food products who were given a hearing before that body to determine if, as alleged, the weight or volume of a package of foods or drugs has been found lower than that claimed on the labels. Charges have been made from time to time that cases of this character had frequently occurred.

Hurlington, Ia., Oct. 1.—With the installation of officers, the general of the conference was the granting of permission to young people's societies is the predominant tongue. It is thought that this action will eventu-

FIGHT WAVES FOR 14 HOURS.

Three Occupants of Crippled Launch Rescued in Pittable Condition.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Two men and a boy in a gasoline launch were rescued after a 14-hour battle with the waves of Lake Michigan, in which they were almost overcome by cold. The engine of their craft was broken and they were unable to propel the boat. When the life-savers, under the direction of Capt. Charles Carlin, reached them, the exhausted victims were ready to give up their struggle. They are H.
Rohrlok, C. A. Rohrlok, his son, and Frank Macey of Saugatuck, Mich., who left there a few days ago for a pleasure cruise.

They were about two miles out in

AUTOMOBILE IS HIT BY A FREIGHT TRAIN

One Man Killed, Two Others Seriously Injured—Corn Field Obstructs View of Victims.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 1.—In a collision between an automobile and a Chicago & Northwestern freight train at Huda, 60 miles north of this city, William Armstrong, aged 21, of Quincy, Ill., was almost instantly killed, and his brother Harold, aged 18, was probably fatally injured, while the third occupant of the auto, Archie Johnson of Oregon was seriously hurt.
The injured men were brought to Peoria and taken to a hospital in an unconscious condition. The remains of William Armstrong were held by the coroner of Bureau county who will hold an inquest.

The party left Chicago after purchasing the machine in which they were riding and it appears that a corn field prevented them from seeing the on-coming train at the fatal crossing. The Armstrong boys are sons of Andrew Armstrong, a wealthy whiting manufacturer of Quincy.

TWO MILLION WITNESS PARADE.

New York's Great Centennial Pageant Excites Unparalleled Praise.

New York, Oct. 1.—Twenty-five thousand men of arms marched past the massed representatives and special envoys of 37 nations, while 2,000, 000 citizens, seated in grandstands or standing along Fifth avenue, shouted themselves hoarse in cheers. The great military parade was the climax of the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

Although there were tremendous overtures for each body of American troops and unstinted applause in overwhelming volume for the British sailors, the most conspicuous reception of the day went to the sailors of the German fleet, a picked body of magnificent men, who, as they reached the reviewing stand, fell into the formal step-step of the parade goose step and burst into "My Country 'Tis of Thee," with an overwhelming volume of brasses and a fervor which took away the breath of the listeners.

The benches sat silent for a moment and then, rising bareheaded to their feet, cheered and cheered and cheered again, until the voices gave way and they could only wave hats and handkerchiefs in a long echo of applause.

For the first time during the celebration, all the small towns within striking distance of New York suspended business to watch the parade pass the court of honor and the official reviewing stand.

So many men representing so many branches of the war department of the world have not been seen on American streets before; so many wearing American colors have not been seen since the days of the civil war. The total count of those in line yesterday outnumbered the enlisted roll of the American regular army before the Spanish-American war. Four thousand four hundred police kept the crowd in line.

Last night marked the climax, so far as spectacles go, of the celebration in Greater New York. There remains the carnival parade, but, though different in appearance, it does not vary in essence from the historical pageant of last Tuesday. The airship and aeroplane flights continue, but the public has already had a first taste of them, and to-day sees the depurture up the river of a part at least of the naval concourse, which more than any one thing has drawn the crowd and given the celebration international dignity.

SUICIDES IN AWFUL WAY.

Woman Permits Lions to Kill Her—Causes Panic in Theater.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 1.—A young woman committed suicide in a frightful manner here last night. Having had a quarrel with her lover, who is a lion tamer in a theater in which three lions are introduced during the course of a molodrama, the woman went behind the scenes and thrust her arm into the cage.

The animals were wild with rage and with a few blows of their claws tore her head and breast to pieces.
The woman's fearful screams and the roars of the animals caused a panic among the audience, and the fireproof curtain had to be lowered.

Will Investigate Pella Disease.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 1.—Following an investigation by Dr. Frank Hillings, head of the state board of charities and several well-known state physicians, and biologists into pellagra conditions at the Peoria State hospital at South Bartonville, Dr. W. C. Graves, secretary of the board, will to-day submit a report to Gov. Denison recommending that a committee of noted physicians and biologists be authorized and appointed to make a complete investigation into the disease pellagra.

Postal Authorities to Purify the Mails.

New York, Oct. 1.—Following the lead of Chicago, the postal authorities here are taking steps to stop filthiness through the mails via the general delivery. Persons applying for mail at the general delivery window are now required to sign a card of identification for reference. In speaking of general delivery evils, Postmaster Edward L. Morgan made it quite clear that the efforts of the postal authorities to purify the mails were largely disinterested.

Origin of "Yonkers."

Patron Van de Donck, in the years after 1612, lived such a serene and robust life on his Hudson river estate that the Dutch villagers called his manor farm, "De Jonckheer's land"— the gentleman's land. Later, compressed by the frugal English into "Yonkers."

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THE Lord loves a cheerful giver.

If you can't give anything up cheerfully and without making a fuss about it, it's almost better not to give it up at all.

Many people always tie the string of bad temper, and an injured air, or a martyrdom to all their self-sacrifices, and then wonder why they are not loved for their unselfish dispositions.

Haven't you known amiable, selfish people who were on the whole easier to get along with than disagreeable self-sacrificers? I have.

I know a woman who once gave up a pleasure trip to take charge of the home of a sick relative.

She was a person who never spoke out any feelings of displeasure or discontent, but always displayed them just as plainly by a trick of expression.

"I felt as if there was a pent-up storm cloud in the home all the time she was here," said a member of the family that was the victim of this ungracious self-sacrifice.

Ask to the people who make painfully obvious martyrs of themselves and London fogs of their surroundings whenever they give up anything are those who give up their own way quite pleasantly in the end, but with whom that end comes only after they have made a most tremendous fuss about the matter.

I know a man who greets every plan or desire of his wife with rampant disapproval. After interminable argument, frequent reference to similar projects which turned out very satisfactory to him when he allowed them to be put into practice and a lot of wearisome discussion, he usually changes his mind.

His gracious permission is then freely given. Of course, he wants her to take that trip, have the new wall paper a little bit different from the one his father put on thirty years ago, have the ice chest moved from its extremely inconvenient position. She must know, he says, that there is nothing he desires so much as her happiness.

Frequently the fight she has had to wage takes away half her pleasure. Who gales from such a performance? Nobody.

Who loses? Everybody concerned.

Those who give ungraciously or grudgingly should remember that when the left hand in this way takes away half the right hand has given, it also takes away half the credit due the giver.

The privilege of sacrifice is a great one.

Perhaps you haven't always looked at it in just that way, but I think it you were absolutely and eternally denied it, you might realize you had lost a privilege.

And I think that all the people who sacrifice ungraciously and grudgingly could have no better punishment than to suddenly find themselves in a world that utterly refused to take their grudging gifts.

Ruth Cameron

HINTS FOR THE HOME

(By Ethel Allen.)
The school child—the most important person in the home at this season of the year is the child who is getting back into the harness for school work. To the mother falls the duty of overseeing clothes, food, books, etc., and a busy woman is she who has a large family and a place in her heart for the perplexities and joys of each member thereof. The matter of a child's food is one on which books have been written and books will yet be written.
The main thing, after a menu has been decided upon, is to get the child down to the table with time enough to eat in peace. Better a half hour less sleep than that the breakfast should be hurried, and the less feeling of haste he allowed to make the meal one of discomfort. A day, well started means much to every member of the household and to none is it more important than to the hungry, growing child, burdened with the weight of study, in school and out, that we all feel is necessary. If books and clothes are arranged the night before, and the child is awakened in ample time, the whole house will feel better than to go through the hurry-scurry that is the regular routine in many homes between the hours of 8 and 9.
Neatness of Dress—The child that is neatly and carefully dressed has a feeling of self-respect that goes far towards good scholarship. It is unjust to both child and teacher to fail to attend to this important point. It is not necessary, nor even advisable, that a child should be expensively dressed. Old clothes are no disgrace, but unclean clothes, dirty finger nails, soiled face and neck and uncombed hair are not only a disgrace, but a detriment to the child's work. The food, air that is found in many schoolrooms is not always due to poor ventilation. The odor of unclean bodies is the most sickening to the teacher has to contend with and is at the same time the hardest problem in the hygienic question school has to solve.

Duties of Military Attache.
The duties of a military attache are to make himself thoroughly acquainted with every change that takes place in military affairs and to report from time to time on the mobilization, armament and equipment of the power to which he is accredited.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. J. C. Durbin of Belvidere is visiting at the home of O. W. Athol on Highland avenue.

Mrs. Carpenter of Ft. Atkinson, who has been visiting with Mrs. E. F. Carpenter in this city, accompanied the latter on an automobile trip to Janesville yesterday.

S. A. Burt, head of the Wisconsin Telephone Co., was here from Milwaukee yesterday.

Mrs. Pullen of Evansville visited in this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George King and Arthur P. Barnham accompanied Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Barnworth yesterday on an automobile trip to Rockford.

Norman L. Carlo and a party consisting of Ogden H. Fethers, W. H. Greenman, Victor P. Richardson, Charles S. Putnam and Peter J. Mout, enjoyed an automobile trip to the Fish City yesterday and enjoyed a fish dinner at Rockford's famous restaurant.

Princess Frock.
Thus no very radical change is apparent in the styles for fall and winter. They are various and show, and there seems to be an effort to modify some of the wilder flights of fashion which we witnessed during the past season. The princess frock—as above—and those of the Mayan Age appear to hold first place; all are noticeable for their neat trim effect, which is obtained by the use of one time for the entire gown, only relieved by a touch of white at throat and wrist. In the frock above of lavender cloth this was given by the chemise of tucked muslin and revers and cuffs of lace.

MILITARY DISPLAY TO BE GRAND.

Elaborate Plans Are Completed for Meeting of Tatt and Diaz.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 1.—Plans for the military display by Mexico at the Tatt-Diaz meeting here have been completed and troops have begun to move to the northern border.

In addition to the presidential guard, President Porfirio Diaz will be accompanied by a regiment of Zapadores, a regiment of infantry and a regiment of artillery.

The presidential train will be guarded by 60 members of the presidential guard.

The famous police band of Mexico City will furnish music for the banquet given by President Diaz in Juarez.

Three of President Diaz' private carriages are on the way to Juarez, and special horses have been shipped by express train.

President Diaz has given instructions to have a silver service from Chapultepec castle sent to Juarez for the banquet.

Furniture to be used in decorating the banquet hall has been sent from Mexico City and decorators are busy completing final arrangements.

Paintings of Washington and Morales will be hung in the reception rooms.

Army Rations for Sufferers.

Washington, Oct. 1.—By direction of the secretary of war, Gen. W. W. Wetherpoon, acting chief of staff, authorized the issue of 20,000 of short army rations to the cyclone sufferers in Terrebonne parish, Louisiana. This action was taken on the request of United States Senator Foster and Representative Broussard.

DEMOCRATS ARE IN HARMONY.

Convention at Boston Nominates Ticket Unanimously.

Boston, Oct. 1.—With singular unanimity and almost unparalleled harmony in the Massachusetts Democratic convention at Faneuil hall, named its state ticket, headed by former State Senator James H. Valley of Watertown, and adopted a platform of party principles. Two men formerly named in the ticket, Frank so-called "liberal" Republicans are Eugene S. Foss of Scituate, for many years the foremost member of the "reciprocal" wing of the Republican party, and Harvey S. Shepard of Boston.

The platform, which was an unusually brief document, declared in favor of an immediate reduction of the tariff on the necessities of life, a reciprocal trade treaty with Canada; the support of only such candidates for public office as are pledged to the ratification of the constitutional amendment favoring an income tax; the election of United States senators by popular vote and direct nominations.

A resolution was adopted expressing the sorrow of the Massachusetts Democracy at the death of Gov. Johnson of Minnesota.

Female Burglar Sentenced.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 1.—After pleading guilty to burglary of a store at Woodbine, Ia., Mrs. Anna Lind, 25, and mother of a 14-month-old babe, was given an indeterminate sentence of ten years in the penitentiary. Sentence was pronounced at Logan, her home. Last July Mrs. Lind was captured by a night watch. She wore made attire.

Risks His Life for a Dog.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 1.—Louis Handeman climbed to the top of the steeple of St. Stephen's Catholic church, here at the risk of his life to rescue a little black terrier which in some mysterious way had become lodged in a small window in the steeple.

Vincennes, Ind., Goes "Wet."

Vincennes, Ind., Oct. 1.—Knox county voted "wet" in a local option election. The 43 precincts in the county show a majority of 741 for the "wets," although returns from the two remaining country precincts may lower this majority slightly. The city of Vincennes voted "wet" by a majority of 1,709. Knox is the thirteenth of the 92 counties in Indiana to vote "wet." Sixty-two counties have voted "dry" and eight are "dry" through the operation of the remonstrance law. Nine counties remain in which no action has been taken. Slight disturbances occurred in the Sixth ward, where the "wets" attempted to vote several foreigners.

Strike Unsettled.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 1.—All efforts to bring about a settlement of the street car employees' strike by arbitration have so far been ineffective.

Electricity and Bacteria.

Among interesting papers read before the Royal Society in London recently was one by C. Russ upon the electrical reactions of certain bacteria as applied to the detection of tubercle bacilli in urine by means of an electric current. Another by Prof. H. A. Wilson described his experiments to determine the effect of a magnetic field surrounding it upon the electrical conductivity of a flame.

J. M. BOSTWICK &amp; SONS. Inlaid Linoleum 35c Yard

That's a surprising price, isn't it? If your linoleum or oil cloth is all worn out, the figure lost, and the coloring gone you can re-cover your floor with ordinary printed linoleum, give it a coat of Linoleum Lustre and the coloring and pattern will be preserved indefinitely—BETTER THAN IN-LAID LINOLEUM—that is, unless Linoleum Lustre were put on the latter, when it would also be preserved for years.

But you don't need to buy inlaid linoleum, because Linoleum Lustre will keep inexpensive printed linoleum fresh JUST AS LONG as the high priced kind.

A child can apply it and it will dry overnight.

The Little Co. of Fond du Lac is running operations on the Janesville Clothing Co.'s new three-story 112x40-present factory on Franklin street.

The building is being constructed largely of cement and reinforced concrete. The side walls are to have pillars at intervals of 10 or 12 feet with brick panels between and the crossbeams are to be of steel and cement.

BUYERS EXPECTED
TO START IN SOON

Tobacco Crop for Present Season Is Discussed by the Edgerton Tobacco Reporter.

According to the Edgerton Tobacco Reporter the harvest of another tobacco crop has been completed and since the first frost scare has been secured in very good condition. Those growers who waited for their tobacco to fully ripen now see the wisdom of cliving the crop ample time to mature, for the curing has come on so much more satisfactorily. Later development shows that about one-half the crop of the state occupied any markings of the early frost and it is in the southern growing sections where the bulk of the buying has been conducted the past few weeks. There is quite a territory where a partial frost was done by the first freeze where the amount of damage can best be told after the frost is stripped.
These sections have been largely neglected in the buying so far while choice selections were being made, but doubtless many will receive attention later on. It is now likely that the state will yield its full quota of binder goods this year, and yet it is an easy matter to count up above 50,000 cases of the new crop that is already under contract including, of course, some portions of the northern crop purchased early which was afforded by the frost. It is not believed, however, that half the acreage of the state has so far been contracted for.

The buying movement will soon need re-energizing if the present demand, in activity continues. A few buyers will remain in the field, but the end of the first rush season seems almost in sight. So far, however, prices have been well maintained and even outside figures paid for a few choice lots.

Sales coming to notice are:
Ladd & Mon, 20a at 10 1/2c;
T. E. Rockney, 12a at 11 1/2c;
Martin Mason, 12a at 10 1/2c;
Martin Anderson, 6a at 11 1/2c;
J. J. Cleveland, 6a at 11 1/2c;
C. W. Sholes, 6a at 10 1/2c;
C. Fosselstad, 7a at 9 1/2c;
Foster Bros., 7a at 9 1/2c;
S. A. Randa, 2a at 9 1/2c;
H. A. Quale, 7a at 10 1/2c; 4a at 6 1/2c;
H. J. Howe, 7a at 9 1/2c;
O. S. Olman, 5a at 9 1/2c;
Thos. Hogan, 6a at 10 1/2c.

The remnants of old crops in farmers' hands continue to move steadily.
The following crops of '08 have been sold at from 10 to 12 cents: Jokum
Johnson, 92c; Iver Brithall, 36c;
Claude Mason, 42c; Martin Mason, 65c; Martin Anderson, 42c; Julius Jacobson, 62c.

Quick work has been done in harvesting the balance of the crop, which is now secured.

Weather conditions for the curing have been favorable so there is small danger now of any further sheddamage.
There has been but little improvement to note in the business among packers in cured leaf. Sales continue in small lots to meet manufacturers' needs.
The shipments out of storage reach 3500s from this market to all points for the week.

CITIZENS' MUTUAL
ONE OF DEFENDANTS

In Action Brought by Northern Brush
Co. of Oshkosh to Collect
$3,504 Fire Insurance.
The Citizens' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Janesville is one of the defendants in an action brought by Northern Brush Co. of Oshkosh, to collect damages for the loss of the company's plant by fire on Nov. 7, 1908. Other defendants are the Clintonville, Marlon, Fond du Lac and Elgin, Theresa Village, and Village of Sheboygan Falls mutual insurance concerns.
Brush Co. claims $3,504.15, or $419.58 from each of the companies excepting the Marlon Mutual, from which $142.55 is alleged to be due. From the other defendants, it is alleged by the plaintiffs, that the value of their property to be $6,400 without reimbursement, whereas it was really worth but $500 and was insured. The suit has been started in the Winnebago county circuit court. Officers of the local company are: A. J. Matheson, president; C.
D. Stevens, vice president; and A. E.
Bingham, treasurer.

JURY SYSTEM WILL BE A NEW MOVEMENT

Eighteen instead of twelve jurors to be drawn in circuit court cases.
Eighteen instead of twelve jurors will be drawn for all circuit court cases at the calling of the case for trial, though but twelve jurors will be retained to hear the case. An amendment to the law, Chapter 230, laws of 1909, provides that in all cases the clerk shall draw eighteen names instead of twelve, for a jury. Philliff and attorney will be granted the right of three pre-emptory challenges and where the challenges are not all exercised the clerk of court shall draw lots or eliminate the additional members of the jury from the case. Under this provision there will be eighteen jurors up to the time that testimony is started in the case, the law providing for additional names where jurors may be excused for cause. The important part of the change is that no additional jurors can be called after or strikes are exercised.

MONROE WOMAN HAS WITHDRAWN CHARGES

Investigation Shows That Insane Husband Bruised Himself and Had Not Been Mistreated.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Monroe, Wis., Oct. 1.—Charges of mistreatment of inmates made in connection with the case of Thomas Hess, who was sent to a mental hospital two weeks ago, proved unfounded when an investigation was made by Sheriff Hess, who went to Madison with Mrs. Hess, who complained of the treatment of her husband to the county judge, after she saw her husband last Saturday. Hess made an attack upon the attendants the night before when he was found pounding out the windows of his room. He was overpowered and strapped to his bed.
He had bruised his head by bumping it against the wall and strapped in-bed he told his wife that he could not rise and that he feared his back had been broken. Hess is violent and dangerous and in his mental flights he tells of the people he has killed and sent up. The inquiry satisfied Mrs.
Hess, who withdrew her application for a transfer, and John Hess, with the county judge and sheriff in exoner-ating the management.

MONROE RESIDENTS
ARE SEEING THINGS

Long, Dark, Narrow Object, Supposed to Be an Airship, Seen by a Number Wednesday Evening.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Monroe, Oct. 1.—A large dark object, long and narrow in shape, was seen passing over the east part of the city from the south Wednesday evening and took a westerly course. People who saw it believe that it was an airship. Because of darkness they shdly got an outline of it, the details not being visible so the nature of the aerial craft cannot be judged.
The movement was slow and it appeared to be about half way up the sky and shot upward. There was an occasional glint of light which also denoted that passengers were aboard. Many residents in different parts of the city saw it.

The Whitewater high school football team will be here Saturday to play the Monroe high. The local team has its schedule filled until November 6, games being arranged with Beloit, Madison, Stoughton, Janesville and Lake Mills teams.

Mrs. Ann Beckman has returned from Milwaukee, where her husband is confined in St. Mary's hospital with a broken ankle. The member was so badly fractured that to effort was made to set it, the ankle being placed in a plaster cast. Mr. Beckman is 68 years of age and the injury may prove very serious, fever having developed.

Miss Victoria Jordan, of Wabasha, Ind., is here on a visit to Mrs. Helen Corson.

Mrs. Collin W. Wright is home from a visit to her mother at Mineral Point.

A marriage license was issued to John Becker, Jr., and Miss Alvina Blumer, both of Jefferson.

TWO BOYS INJURED
IN A BAD RUNAWAY

Harold Schickler and Frank Hennessey Severely Bruised and Pony Cart Demolished.

Frightened by a street car, a pony which was drawing three boys home from the scene of the high school football practice at Mole's grove became uncontrollable late yesterday. Afternoon and dashed the cart against a telephone pole. Harold Schickler was thrown headlong and was picked up in a dazed condition. One of his limbs was also severely bruised.
Frank Hennessey and the third occupant of the vehicle are nursing some black and blue spots as a result of the accident. The cart was a total wreck.

Bitten by a Dog.
Nependa McCarthy, twelve year old son of D. P. McCarthy who resides at 237 North Washington street, was badly bitten just above the right knee yesterday by a savage bulldog which was kept from Madison to C. H. Wes-by a day or two ago. Dr. Mun dressed the wound.

OCTOBER'S WEATHER
IS NOW DISCUSSED

Reverend Irl Hicks Makes His Usual Long-Range Forecast of What to Expect.
General cloudiness and threatening weather will prevail as we pass from September to October, but these conditions will increase to positive storms of rain, wind and thunder on the 3d to 5th. It will be proper to watch for high northwesterly gales over the great lakes at this period. A reactionary storm falls upon the 10th, increasing cloudiness may result in light rains and change to cooler. The next regular storm period is central on the 14th with heavy autumnal storm passing west to east across the country. This is the time when navigators of the north Atlantic and the great lakes should exercise care against possible danger. Violent gales will wind up this period. A reactionary storm period is central on the 19th, with very chilly, disagreeable weather. The moon's first quarter on the 22d will tend to prolong and aggravate storm and weather in-decisions of this period. The last regular storm of the month falls from 24 to 29th. Careful students of forecasts will not fail to note that the moon is on the celestial equator on the 26th. This combination will increase high and dangerous ideas on the first stages of these storms.
The first stage of these storms will be tropical in character, attended by high temperature and thunder storms; but as the centers of barometric disturbances move progressively east of the different longitudes, high barometer, different gales and snow squalls will follow from the west and north. Within sixty hours of noon on the 29th, preferably before, is another very decided seismic storm.

MONTICELLO.

Monticello, Sept. 30.—Word has just been received by relatives here of the death of Henry Richards of Neenah, which occurred at his home in that city, July 10th. The remains were taken to Wyanburg Valley for interment. Years ago the deceased was engaged in the harness and saddlery business at Brodhead, but for many years he had held a position as traveling salesman for wholesale concerns in the same line. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Ida, besides a brother, Robert Richards of Aberdeen, South Dakota.

George Meythaler was at Hanover on business last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel. Schmitt of New Glarus were calling on Monticello relatives Tuesday.

Mrs. J. E. Pierce and daughter, Mrs.
E. J. Zweifel, spent Wednesday afternoon in New Glarus.
Miss Elsie Truckenbrod, who has been spending a few days with Monicello relatives, returned to Monroe, Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Alice Hyman, who has been spending the summer in South Dakota, has accepted a position as teacher in the public schools at Kimball, being assigned the same grades she had charge of in the Monticello schools.
Mr. and Mrs. John Solderhouser and their son and daughter, John and Alma, departed Tuesday morning for Winneconne where the latter will enter an agricultural and domestic science training school. Before returning home Mr. and Mrs. Solderhouser will make a short visit at the home of Fred Weissmiller and family in the vicinity of Oshkosh. Miss Alma and Johnnie were given a farewell party at Wittwer's hall, Saturday evening, by a goodly number of their young friends. Dancing was the principal pastime and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Prison for Debtors Again.
The report of a select committee on imprisonment for debt, which was laid on the table in the British house of commons last month has been made public. The present law permits imprisonment where the debtor has means to pay and will not do it.
Charles Dickens was largely the cause of the change in the old laws when poor debtors were kept in prison hopelessly. Some now think England went too far the other way and now that it is the debtors for necessities or for damages for wrongs committed, the prison should punish. Poor people and artisans are not to suffer.

The Right Use of Books.

Ordinarily a man keeps his hand in his pocketbook when the name of the custom tailor is mentioned. His reputation seems to be as good as his newspaper reports of the Standard and all octopus. Although it is well known that no other method of clothes making can equal hand-tailoring in style, fit and quality, the prices charged for such service by many tailors are beyond the reach of everybody but a near millionaire.

But don't get discouraged, you can have your clothes tailored by trained craftsmen from measurements taken by a skilled manipulator of the tape.
You can have hand-workmanship and individual attention to the points that count. You can have the close intimate expert service of experienced designers and cutters. These privileges are yours for the same price that deluded and inexperienced buyers pay for ready made clothes.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, October 1, 1899.—Shocking Railroad Accident. A distressing accident occurred near the passenger depot in this city last evening on the arrival of the excursion train from Madison. The victim of the casualty was a man by the name of John Higgins who came from Milwaukee yesterday to take charge of the car machinery department of the C. & M. R. R. Railway. He was occupying a similar position in that city for a number of years. At the time of the accident, he was examining the wheels of the train which had just come in and did not observe that another train was standing on the main track. The engine which was backing down, and although he heard the bell, supposed it to be that of the locomotive on the passenger train. As he was stooping over, the engine struck him, throwing him down, with his right leg and left foot upon the track, which the wheels passed over, crushing them terribly. He was picked up at once and taken into Malen's house, where medical aid was called. It was found necessary to amputate the right leg below the knee and to take out several bones from the left foot. He has rallied to-day from the shock to his system, and although as comfortable as could be, it is by no means certain that his injuries are not fatal. The poor fellow has a wife and four children in Milwaukee and the burden of his anxiety after his injury seemed to be for them. The officers of the road have telegraphed to have everything done for him possible to make him comfortable and have sent a man out to care for him.

Talks on Snake Culture

No. 19—The Spender

There is a tall, dark man in our village who braced up after several years of riotous living, and the Northern money, he replied: "I am paying for dear horses. I am so unimpairedly constituted that I can't enjoy life when I want money, and while I was in the red paint department I was a great success as a progressive spender. I usually paid cash for my drinks, as the barkeepers had a prejudice against the checkbook system, and I went into debt for grub and clothes and other luxuries of that nature. I am paying for meat tickets that were punched out eight years ago, and for suits of hand-me-downs which went to the fathers of the present generation of paupers."

Lights are gradually fading out of his eyes, and his breath comes with unusual effort, he is earning a fat salary, and a good many people wonder why he lives frugally, and would suppose that he is suffering down large quantities of sandwiches in his collar, but he isn't. Being asked, the other day, what he was doing with all his money, he replied: "I am paying for dear horses.
